

EUROPEAN COMMISSION

DIRECTORATE-GENERAL

PERSONNEL AND ADMINISTRATION

Directorate B - Rights and obligations; social welfare policy and actions

Administration of individual rights

DECLARATION OF 1999 INCOME CONCERNING TAX YEAR 2000

Officials and other staff members who are asked to complete an annual tax declaration in the country of their fiscal domicile can attach a certificate established by the Commission, confirming that salaries, wages and emoluments paid by the Communities are exempt from national taxes. This certificate can be obtained from unit Admin.B.3, Administration of individual rights, Privileges Section, B28 01/66, by returning this form, duly completed.

-Staff-number :

-Surname and fore-name (Mrs.,Ms.,Mr.) :

-Maiden name if applicable :

-Nationality :

-Required language of certificate :

-Administrative address :

Have you benefitted from a leave on personal grounds without pay in 1999 ? If so, for which period.....

Attention is drawn to the fact that Article 13 of the Protocol on Privileges and Immunities applies only to statutory staff, officials, temporary agents and auxiliary staff.

Other employees who receive income from employment for the Commission are not covered by the Protocol and therefore cannot invoke exemption from national taxes.

Officials, temporary agents and auxiliary staff of Belgian nationality, having worked for the Commission for the entire year 1999, will receive the certificate automatically by the end of April 2000.

It is therefore not necessary for these employees to return this document.

Staff who benefit from a pension are requested to apply directly to unit Admin.B.6, L86-2/49.